JUNE 5, 2015

Presenters include:

Elizabeth Clarke, President of the Juvenile Justice Initiative
Ralph Grunewald, Ph.D., Professor at the University of Wisconsin - Madison

Learn about international developments in juvenile justice law in comparison to the U.S. Attendees will come away from this program with an understanding of how laws, policy and practices in other countries address juvenile justice issues common throughout the world, continuing challenges and the role lawyers can play in promoting the rights of children. There are two sessions - morning and afternoon - attend one or both. Lawyers and non lawyers are welcome!

Morning Session 9:00am - 12:00pm

- Introduction to UN Convention on the Rights of the Child and its application in Europe
- Juvenile court practices in the U.S. and internationally
- Right to counsel internationally and in the U.S.

Afternoon Session: 1:00pm - 4:00pm

- The role of the lawyer in protecting the rights of children
- Lawyers' professional responsibility to follow UNCRC

CLE Credit: 3 PR credits per session, 6 for both sessions

Cost: $125 per session, or $225 for both sessions
